Obituary

Lloyd Brad Young -- Brad to all who knew him -- was born on October 11th, 1961 in Oakland, California, to his proud parents, Clarence Young Sr., and Emma Young. He was their last born and was named after long-time family friend, Lloyd Bradrick.

Brad grew up in Richmond, CA, and attended local schools in the Richmond area. Brad graduated from Harry Ells School in 1979. After completing high school, Brad went on to continue his education at the College of Siskiyous in Weed, CA, where he received his Associate of Arts Degree.

Brad was an avid sports player at Harry Ells High. He excelled at baseball, basketball, and football, and won many awards for his athletic abilities. While he was a student at College of Siskiyous, Brad participated on the college baseball and football teams. After graduating from College of Siskiyous, Brad became a student at Long Beach State, where he worked towards his Bachelor of Science Degree.

Growing up in a spiritual home, Brad attended church at a very young age with his grandmother, Alberta Young Moore, and often visited Ever-Ready Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Dr. Willie Cobb when the spirit moved him.

Brad was blessed to have two wonderful children by Patricia Ballard: son Brandon Lloyd Young, and daughter Braneisha Young. He leaves behind one granddaughter, Brannon Love Young. He loved them all dearly.

For several years, Brad was employed by Monty AAA Towing. He also worked for Islanders Construction in San Francisco, CA, and for many years had his own landscaping business, where he employed family and friends.

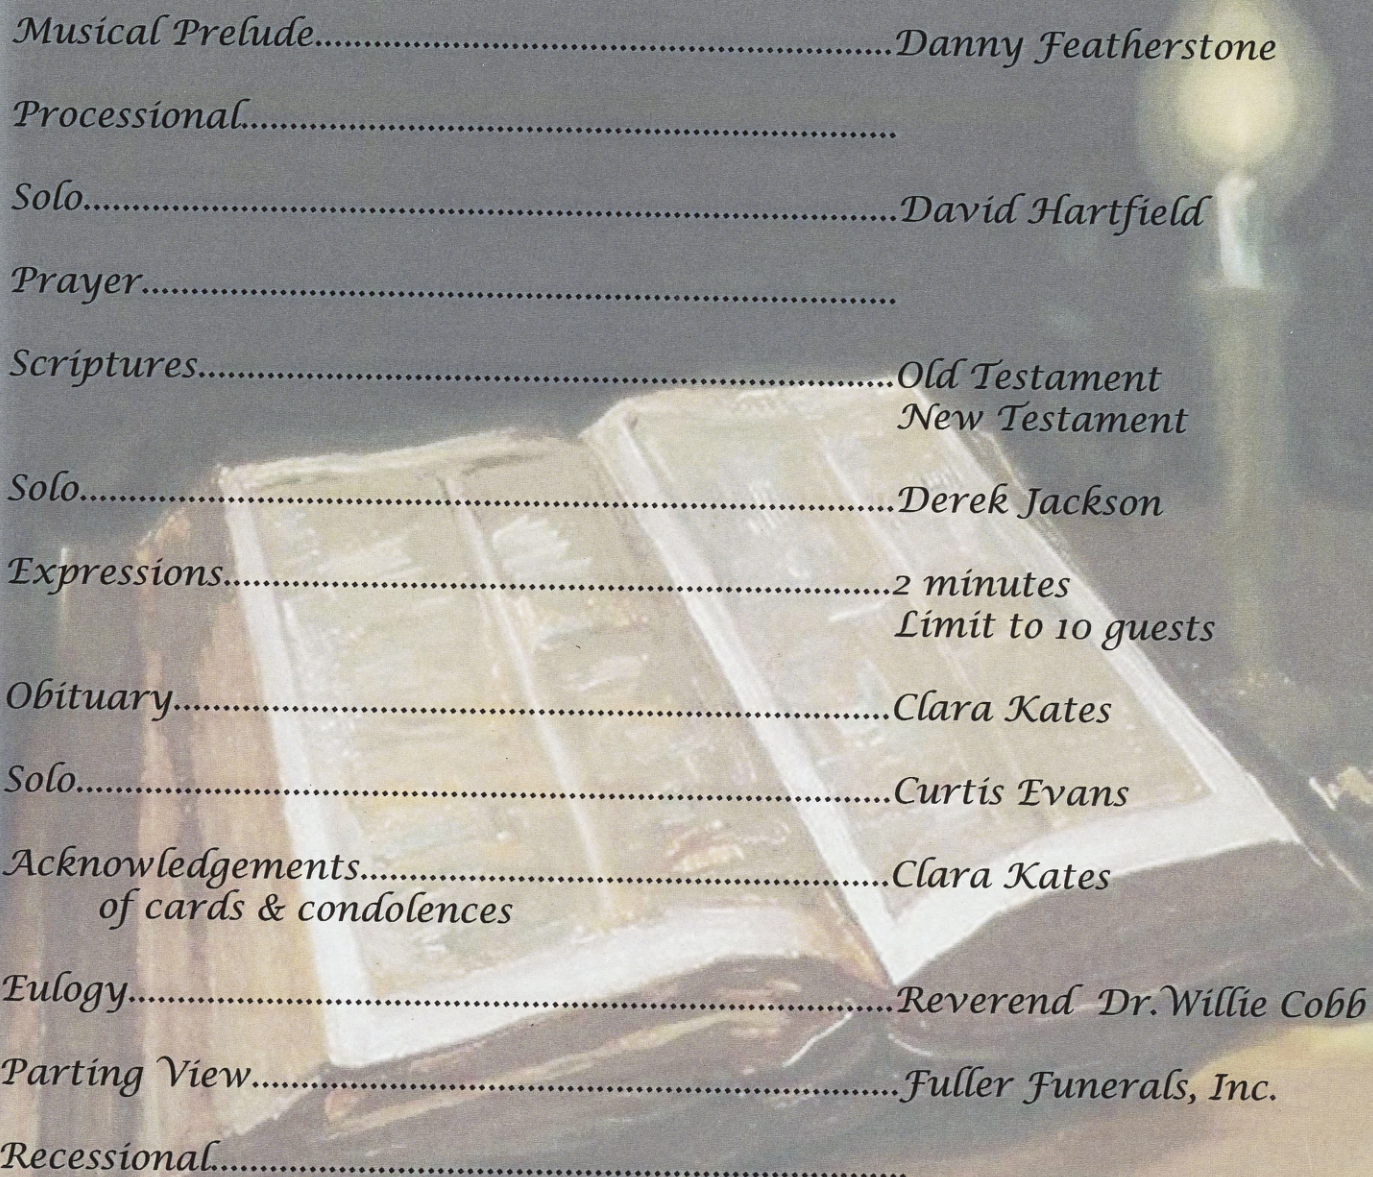

Brad had a very dialectic, loving personality and good spirit from the time of his youth. He took on many traits that he learned from his father. After his father passed, Brad tried to be just like him. He was always there to lend a helping hand to those in need. Family was number one with Brad, and he especially loved his mother. He also loved children, both his own and all others he met over the years, and often fed the neighborhood kids at barbeques and cookouts in an effort to make a difference in their lives. His landscaping business grew from his love of planting flowers and trees, furthering his commitment to family, friends and the community.

Brad departed this life on May 1, 2008 in Martinez, CA. He was preceeded in death by Larry D. Young, Father Clarence Young, Sr., Emma Mae Lincoln, Charles A. Young, Sr., Loretha Levels, and Clarence "Sonny" Young, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving mother, Mrs. Emma Young of Richmond, CA; a son, Brandon Young of Bay Point, CA; a daughter, Branesia Young, also of Bay Point, CA; one granddaughter, Brannon Love Young of Richmond, CA; brothers Nelson and Clyde Young of Richmond, CA; one sister, Jerrie Cash of Stockton, CA; aunts Ollie Bell McCullough of Richmond, CA and Emma Jean Young of Richmond, CA; two sisters-in-law, Debra and Dez Young of Stockton and Richmond, CA; two brothers-in-law, Gene Cash and Rudolph Lincoln; a very close friend, Greg Litt; a very dear cousin, Vincent Jones, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Brad touched many lives and will truly be missed by all.

Psalms 23:1-6

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all of the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Don't Weep For Me

*Don't weep for me, God has set me free.
The joy we had will always last.
The children God gave to me, I give to you.
For now I know they live in me.
As you can see, God set me free.*

*Whatever you do, don't weep for me.
The pain I bore, I bear no more.
The tears you shed should last no more.
You now should see, God lives in me.
That's why He made the choice
To set me free.*

*My life my love, my family will always be,
For now you know, they live in me.
The years will pass, the memories will forever last.
The time has come to say good-bye.
At rest, at peace, God set me free.*
